Dear MacDonald, Hoping that you stay still in America I send you the second revised edition of my sketch of Muslim and Jewish beliefs by which you will read with accustomed indulgence.
I got in time your ~~part~~ ^{part} of my Völsungen in the Rev. of Missions. ~~Adi~~ ^{Adi}. I do not know when the English translation ~~of~~ will come to an end. Yastrow wrote me half a year ago that 2/3 are finished, but since that time I did not hear of it. Perhaps he has difficulties to find a publisher. At the end of April I had a very interesting visit. Abbot Ewald ~~spoke~~ ^{spoke} on the way to visit his disciple and Party adherents stayed here for a week's time and visited me twice in my lodging. We talked much about metaphysics; I found him having more advanced ideas than myself. He developed in classical Arabic very modern thoughts. It is ~~so~~ remarkable, that he was here fêted mostly by theosophists and other extravagantists. He is a man of very lovely manners and seems not to lay much stress on the emanationist character of his origin. When will you start for Europe. Remember that Budapest also lays in that part of the globe. As you see from the Debum we live not in the town. Our summer quarter is an electric hour from the centre. It is possible that we shall travel at the end of the summer-vacancies to Upsala where I am invited since two years for a series of Lectures, but the question will not be settled before then. In that case I will have to prepare the materials for 8 Lectures, which will take at least 2 months.
Our kindest compliments to Mrs. MacDonald. Yours sincerely
S. Zugligeti
